Jaycee's Emerge NNY Scholarship Recipients Announced

The Greater Watertown Jaycees are pleased to announce Garrison Cook, Heuvelton Central School, and Jeremy Moench, Alexandria Bay Central School, as the recipients of its 2010 Emerge NNY Scholarships. Formerly known as the Outstanding Young New Yorker Scholarships, the Jaycees awarded two $500 scholarships to outstanding high school seniors wishing to continue their education.

Jeremy Moench is a senior at Alexandria Central School who will graduate with an Advanced Diploma. He is a member of the National Honor Society and president of his Future Farmers of America club. He has starred in several school musicals. Jeremy demonstrates leadership through his involvement and service at school and within his community.

Garrison Cook is a senior at Heuvelton Central School who is ranked 5th in his class. He is involved in several school and community activities that include National Honor Society, Student Council, Teen Council for St. Lawrence County 4-H, and the Ogdensburg Command Performance. Garrison demonstrates creativity, entrepreneurial spirit, and innovation through his involvement with helping his family to establish a local farmer's market.

Applicants are reviewed on their extracurricular and school activities, community service, honors and achievements, leadership qualities, and a themed-essay. Erika Flint, Jaycee and chair for the review committee noted, "While the decision was difficult, both Jeremy and Garrison stood out as exemplary young men who possess strong leadership skills and are an example to peers and adults alike."

The Jaycees would like to thank Watertown Savings Bank and Pine Cleaners for their continued support of our scholarship program.
