So Many Happy Faces...

The Jaycees Toys for Tots Christmas Party was held December 18 at the Black River Valley Club. As you can see from the picture to the right that the kids were the focus of the evening.

We began with a visit from Curious George who was a BIG hit with the kids.

Next up was dinner with Jaycees serving pizza to our young guests followed by dessert—a very messy sundae bar. The main attraction for the evening was the man himself—SANTA with his PINK bags full of goodies.

Many of the parents and the Toys for Tots officials told us that the Jaycees had a party that would be tough to beat. So...we have already booked the Black River Valley Club for next year's event.

Thank you to all Jaycees and non-Jaycees that helped at the party and to bag gifts on the Tuesday night before. I think we can all say it was for a good cause.

And the Winners Are.....

The Jaycees held a Holiday Edition of the Average Joe's Olympics on Saturday, January 3 at Joe's Tavern. Fun was had by all and once again Leslie O'Hara did a GREAT job organizing it.

A special THANK YOU goes out to Dan Bossuot (yes Janelle's brother) for donation of pizza from his business, Dano's Pizzeria & Restaurant.

News and Announcements

- The Jaycees have been invited by the Watertown Sunrise Rotary to attend their Cocktail Party on Friday, January 16 from 5 PM-8PM at the Black River Valley Club. Free admission and cash bar.
- A meeting was held January 6 at the Flower Memorial Library to discuss the creation of an Arts Council in our area. There was standing room only and by a vote of the membership it was decided the mission would include all arts. A new board was voted in and will meet by the end of the month to work out operational procedures. As more information on the Arts Council becomes available we will forward to membership. For more information call Kari Robertson at 785-9238.
- Please note on page 3 of the Scoop the winter class schedule for Jefferson Community College. Members of the Jaycees benefit from a $5 discount on non-credit courses. Contact Andrea Pedrick in the Office for Continuing Education for more information at 315-786-2438.
